

GREY HERON TO COLOUR-IN

GREY HERONS can be found on ponds.

They watch with their sharp yellow eyes and wait silently for prey.

They move their bright white necks and stab their long yellow beaks into the water to catch fish, frogs and newts.

Their grey-coloured feathers help them to hide...

What colours would you choose to blend in with where you are right now?

